MAP

OVERVIEW

This route is an excellent example of how the perfectly marked routes of Switzerland-mobility can be combined now, thanks to the extensive service offers of SwissTrails, into new, attractive hiking tours. The hike begins in the heart of the city of Lucerne, and runs initially over the Sonnenberg towards Malters and then along the Jakobsweg to the pilgrimage spot of Werthenstein.

The Napf is the next stage destination. Trubschachen represents Emmental in its natural state, with its typical Settlements of farmhouse, «Stöckli» and Spycher. With Rämigummen, Pfyffer and Wachthubel come the splendid peaks with views and the route runs past the Schrattenflue, Kemmeriboden, through the high moors from Salwideli and into the biosphere conservation park at Entlebuch. A panoramic stretch runs from Sörenberg across Glaubenbielen and Glaubenberg to the «climax» of the tour: Mount Pilatus (2119), high over the city of Lucerne.
